LA QUINTA INN & SUITES

Hotel provides functional space for living and working, helping guests maintain their routine while traveling.

Chattanooga, TN (August 05, 2015)—La Quinta Inn & Suites Hopkinsville, Kentucky set to open Fall 2015. The hotel is currently undergoing a renovation to be rebranded from a Fairfield Inn & Suites to a La Quinta Inn & Suites. Located at 345 Griffin Bell Drive, the property will be the 23rd hotel to be operated and managed by 3H Group Hotels of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

The 59-guest room hotel offers a variety of amenities such as free high-speed internet, fitness center, complimentary Bright Side Breakfast, and standard rooms as well as suites. The pet-friendly hotel will be the first of its kind in the Hopkinsville market.

All spacious guest rooms come with in-room coffee makers, hair dryers and irons with ironing board to allow guests to prepare for their day. La Quinta Inn & Suites Hopkinsville provides ample work spaces complete with ergonomic chairs and well-lit lamps so that guests can be productive during their stay. The business center, which includes fax machine and printer, may be found in the lobby area.

La Quinta Inn & Suites offers what travelers need to wake up on the bright side. The friendly and dedicated service makes traveling less challenging. The light-filled and open lobby creates an energizing atmosphere, perfect for socializing and meeting up. Guests can also enjoy a cup of coffee or wait in one of the plush chairs while in the lobby.

“We’re very excited to add the La Quinta brand to our quickly growing portfolio,” Mike DePrez, Regional Director of Operations 3H Group Hotels, said. “La Quinta Inn & Suites Hopkinsville is the perfect addition to our hotel team.”
