TENNESSEE HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM ASSOCIATION HONORS JULIO GALVEZ
Julio Galvez of Staybridge Suites Chattanooga Wins State Level Hospitality Award

CHATTANOOGA, TN—On Monday, August 3rd, 3H Group’s own, Julio Galvez, was honored by The Tennessee Hospitality and Tourism Association at the 2015 “Stars of the Industry” awards Gala. Julio is the Director of Housekeeping at Staybridge Suites Chattanooga and received the “Lodging Manager of the Year” award. The event took place at the Embassy Suites Hotel and Conference Center in Murfreesboro.

Julio Galvez has been with 3H Group Hotels for 4 years, and is well-respected at the hotel in which he works. “Julio is an indispensable asset to our team here at Staybridge Suites, and we are so happy that TnHTA recognized his commitment and effort,” said Jim Sheppard, General Manager. “We have seen what he does, and understand why such an award was presented to him. We are all very proud of him.”

Headquartered in Nashville, TnHTA represents the interests of Tennessee businesses that operate in the hospitality and tourism category. The “Stars of the Industry” awards are given to individuals and companies that demonstrate a true commitment to bettering the industry on the state level, making Tennessee a great place to visit for travelers from all over the world. Every year, TnHTA awards industry all-stars who have contributed to the growth and success of the second largest industry that is hospitality and tourism in Tennessee.

3H Group Hotels is proud of Julio’s accomplishments and honored to be included among the recipient list of industry leaders. 3H is dedicated to the continued growth of hospitality in Tennessee and strives to provide unparalleled customer service. Congratulations Julio!
